

LRSD Election TW

MEH

11/1 (Mon AM – 4:44)

Tomorrow is Election Day with the Little Rock School District and the Pulaski County Special School District both asking voters to continue paying current property tax rates to fund construction and other projects. Joining me to talk about his district's proposal is Little Rock School Superintendent Mike Poore...

(Self-contained – News15 5:57 SOC)

This wouldn't raise the current tax rate, but extend the end date from 2034 to 2052.

Voters have been asked twice in recent years, in 2017 and 2020 to extend the millage, but both times voters said no. The key difference then was the district was under state control.

Turnout during early voting over the last week was very light. The Arkansas Democrat-Gazette reports only about 15-hundred voters turned out. Does that concern you?

Polls will be open tomorrow from 7:30 a.m. to 7:30 p.m.