

TEXARKANA, Ark. -- Miller County Sheriff's Office and Detention Center staff will hold a memorial for Lisa Mauldin at 8:30 a.m. Friday at the flag police outside the detention center, 2300 East St.

Mauldin, 47, a Miller County correctional officer, was killed in the line of duty five years ago in December of 2016. Another officer was injured in the attack and still works for the detention center. The attack happened in the correctional facility's kitchen.

The public is welcome to attend the memorial. It will include prayers and a balloon release.

"Lisa Mauldin was a valued member of the Miller County Detention Center staff. She was kind-hearted and considerate to her co-workers. There are really no words to adequately describe the special person that she was, and she has been sadly missed by all who knew her," according to officials.
