

There follows a listing of some of the significant issues responded to by Station KBRL-AM, McCook, Nebraska, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period January 1, 2024 to January 31, 2024. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

Description of Issue	Programs/Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type & Description of Program/Segment
The Dream We Share	News/Print	1-5	7 a.m. 12 p.m. 5 p.m.	:60	An immigrant who found success through the American Dream will speak in Imperial and McCook next month as part of a speaker series offered by Mid Plains Community College. Luis Sotela is the vice president for Diversity, Equality and inclusion at Doane University in Crete.
OpenSky	News/Print	1-17	7 a.m. 12 p.m. 5 p.m.	:60	Dr. Rebecca Firestone, OpenSky's Executive Director, was a guest of the McCook Rotary Club yesterday. Firestone is a native South Dakotan and proud Nebraska transplant, passionate about translating high-quality evidence in ways that decision-makers can quickly use to take action.
MPPC Board of Governors Meeting	News/Print	1-18	7 a.m. 12 p.m. 5 p.m.	:60	The Mid-Plains Community College Board of Governors met in North Platte last night. The board elected the following officers: Cynthia Duncan as board chair; Kim Korgan as vice chair, Kirk Crawley as secretary/treasurer and Matthew Broz as assistant secretary/treasurer.
New Board of Director's Members	News/Print	1/19	7 a.m. 12 p.m. 5 p.m.	:60	The Community Hospital Health Foundation is pleased to announce the addition of esteemed community leaders to the Board of Directors. New members Shari Lewis, Karen Craw, and Matt Nielsen, bring their wealth of leadership experience to the Health Foundation
Estate and Transition Planning Workshop	News/Print	1-23	7 a.m. 12 p.m. 5 p.m.	:60	Nebraska Extension in partnership with Mid-Plains Community College will host estate and transition planning workshops for farmers and ranchers in Imperial and McCook in February. At McCook, the workshop is free thanks to sponsorship of the event by Community Hospital Foundation.

There follows a listing of some of the significant issues responded to by Station KBRL-AM, McCook, Nebraska, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period February 1, 2024 to February 29, 2024. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

Description of Issue	Programs/Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type & Description of Program/Segment
Oxford Man Sentenced Friday	News/Print	2-19	7 a.m. 12 p.m. 5 p.m.	:60	United States Attorney Susan Lehr announced that Samantha Miller, 31, Oxford, was sentenced on Friday in federal court in Lincoln for conspiracy to distribute methamphetamine and fentanyl. Senior United States District Court Judge, John M. Gerrard, sentenced Miller to 60 months imprisonment.
Hospital's Orthopedic Surgery Team	News/Print	1-23	7 a.m. 12 p.m. 5 p.m.	:60	Serving as an Army combat medic, then moving into field artillery officer in Iraq gave physician assistant Jordon Mattern the drive to go back to school and begin a career in medicine. As the newest addition to the Community Hospital's orthopedic surgery team, Mattern is excited to collaborate with Dr. Douglas Tice.
Custer & Lincoln Counties Declare Emergency	News/Print	2-27	7 a.m. 12 p.m. 5 p.m.	:60	Local officials in Custer and Lincoln counties have declared emergencies and requested state assistance to a large wildfire affecting the area, closing several roads, requiring multiple evacuations and requiring the response of multiple volunteer fire departments from around the region.
Betty's Way Fire	News/Print	2-29	7 a.m. 12 p.m. 5 p.m.	:60	Firefighters continue to make progress on the Berry's Way fire north of north Platte, Nebraska. Containment increased to 82% with approximately 60 people working on managing this large and complex wildfire.

There follows a listing of some of the significant issues responded to by Station KBRL-AM, McCook, Nebraska, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period March 1, 2024 to March 31, 2024 . The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

Description of Issue	Programs/Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type & Description of Program/Segment
Light Of Hope Survivor Dinner	News/Print	3-8	7 a.m. 12 p.m. 5 p.m.	:60	The Cancer Awareness Committee of Community Hospital is overjoyed to announce the success of its recent special occasion, the Light of Hope Survivor Dinner, held on Saturday, February 24, in the Prairie View Meeting room. The Uplifting event brought together 70 individuals, fostering a spirit of resilience, perseverance and hope.
Yesterday's Explosion	News/Print	3-12	7 a.m. 12 p.m. 5 p.m.	:60	The Red Willow County Sheriff's office would request prayers for the victim of yesterday's explosion. Sheriff Kevin Darling mad these comments on the Red Will County Sheriff's Facebook page. Darling said he would not share the name of the victim or the family at this time in regards for their privacy
Alcohol Compliance Checks	News/Print	3-13	7 a.m. 12 p.m. 5 p.m.	:60	Investigators with the Nebraska State Patrol have conducted alcohol compliance checks in Hall and Red Willow counties in recent weeks. This project was supported in whole or part by grant #93.959 under the SAMHA Center for Substance Abuse Prevention, Region II Human Services, and the Nebraska DHHS.
Career Discovery Days	News/Print	3-18	7 a.m. 12 p.m. 5 p.m.	:60	Community Hospital recently hosted a successful Career Discovery Days on March 4th and 5th. The event, aimed at providing students with insights into various healthcare careers, was met with enthusiasm from both attendees and organizations.
MCC Blood Drive Next Thursday		3-27			McCook Community College will sponsor its next blood drive with the American Red Cross on Thursday, April 4. The event is sponsored by the Mid-Plains Community College Student Life Office.