Religious Freedom and Liberty Issues in America - 24

The pillar with which religious freedom and true liberty in America are constructed is that of knowledge. An intelligent understanding of the high cost of these basic human rights and the constant threats to their continuance is essential. Fundamental changes in both societal and governmental attitudes, towards the "First Freedoms" of the United States, should be monitored and recognized by the populace and responded to accordingly. Special programs, dedicated to this pressing threat and community need, as broadcast during this reporting period, are listed below: .

Issue – What Makes Gambling Addiction So Destructive?

There are diverse types of addiction, but most people think of chemical substances such as alcohol or drugs when they hear the word ‘addiction’. It is true that these substances can be highly addictive and can cause crippling addictions, but these are not the only things that individuals can become addicted to. In fact, addiction can be classed as any pattern of behavior that has negative consequences on the life of the individual. And one of the most destructive types of addiction is gambling addiction. So, what makes gambling addiction so destructive and so devastating? Host Mike Tucker discussed these issues and more with Marc Lefkowitz. Director of Training for the California Council on Compulsive Gambling, and compulsive gamblers “Karen” and “Phil”.
