*The HEAT (Home Energy Assistance Target) Program is now open and will be open through April 30, 2017 or until federal funds are exhausted. The HEAT Program is a federally funded assistance program designed to help low-income, elderly and disabled households with home energy costs. The benefit amount is based on household income, household size, type of fuel used and energy burden. HEAT benefits are a one-time payment and will help pay a portion of your fuel bills over the cold winter months. Cache County residents may call the BRAG HEAT Office at (435)713-1444 to schedule your appointment. Box Elder residents call 1-435-723-1116. Rich County residents call 1-877-772-7242. If you are elderly or disabled and unable to come into our office we have someone who will come to your home. Please mention this when you call to schedule your appointment. The Cache County HEAT office is located at the BRAG Office (Bear River Association of Governments) at 170 North Main, Logan.

*The Logan Library has started a new system of one-on-one learning experiences called Book A Librarian. Requests for information and appointments are made online <http://library.loganutah.org/bookalibrarian/>. The request is then reviewed by Librarians who specialize in the applicable information area, and that librarian reaches out to set up the appointment. You can Book A Librarian to ask about how to use e-resources, basic genealogy research, understanding the library's website, or any other question that may take time and attention to answer. For more information, visit the Book A Librarian website (above), or call the Information Desk at 435-716-9120.

*Logan City is pleased to announce the opening of the first city-owned Electric Vehicle Charging station. This station, located at 120 N Church Street, was made possible by a generous grant from the Utah Clean Air Partnership (UCAIR). The station has been operational for the past two months and has seen consistent use from the public. Our hope is that use of this station continues to grow. To access this station, customers must create a Charge Point account at www.chargepoint.com. The station is available for charging 24 hours a day/7 days a week.

*The Logan Library is both pleased and excited to announce the roll-out of a new library service program: "Kindles for Check-Out!" Logan Library card holders now have the opportunity to check-out Kindle e-reader devices that have been pre-loaded with content for their reading enjoyment. A total of 12 different devices will be available for 3 week loan periods and each will contain at least 5 e-books by genre, subject matter or reading level, i.e. Mysteries, Young Adult, Non-Fiction, Children's. The Kindles may be picked-up in the Library during regular operating hours, or they can be placed on hold for later use, similar to placing holds on traditional books and DVDs. For more information, contact the Library at 255 N Main Street in Logan, or visit library.loganutah.org, or call the Information Desk at: 435-716-9120.
