

April 1 – June 30, 2020

Issue	Program	Description	Guest	Date	Time	Duration
Safety	Sunday Sessions	Protecting the elderly in a coronavirus pandemic	Yelland	4-5-2020	6:04	3:46
Water Issues	Sunday Sessions	Water conservation continues to be important	Dickman	4-12-2020	6:03	2:47
Public Safety	Sunday Sessions	April is distracted driving awareness month	Greenwood	4-19-2020	6:04	2:21
Finances	Sunday Sessions	How to handle high medical bills	Yolis-Jepsem	5-24-2020	6:04	4:59
Food safety	Sunday Sessions	With people headed outside outdoor food safety is important	Blakeslee	5-31-2020	6:03	3:12
Weather awareness	Sunday Sessions	K-State weather coverage	Knapp	6-7-2020	6:04	3:59
COVID-19	Sunday Sessions	Kansans agree with COVID-19 handling		6-14-2020	6:03	3:12
News Coverage	Sunday Sessions	News deserts amid the COVID-19 pandemic	Boyer	6-21-2020	6:03	4:45
Pandemic/Election	Sunday Sessions	Elections made more complicated by COVID-19	McLean	6-28-2020	6:04	4:15

Education - Holy Family Elementary School will start its continuous learning plan today

Rural Housing - Secretary of Commerce David Toland has approved the application for the Heart of America Development Corporations Rural Housing Incentive District

Education - Fort Hays State University is accelerating its efforts to help students affected financially by the coronavirus

Special Olympics – The Special Olympics community was struck with another blow last week when Kansas Special Olympics announced that it would be canceling its summer games

Sexual Violence Awareness – Options Domestic and Sexual Violence Services has seen a dramatic increase in calls on domestic violence calls

Community Assistance Center – The Community Assistance Center in Hays has reached its $5,000 fundraising goal

Student Meals – The Press and McDonald’s are both offering an alternative to the USD 489 grab-and-go lunches. The free lunch program was suspended on Thursday

COVID-19 Testing – A mobile COVID-19 testing initiative will travel to five Kansas communities in the coming weeks

County Health - Ellis County will follow the state order and the governor's reopening plan

Fight against Hunger – Kansas Farm Bureau’s campaign to End Hunger has raised $3,800 in Ellis County

Election – The deadline for party candidates to file for the fall election is noon today

Disaster household delivery - A Disaster Household Delivery distribution is set for Monday, giving those in the community affected by COVID the giving access to a variety of foods

Sexual Violence Awareness - Victims and survivors of abuse can now reach out to an advocate from Options Domestic & Sexual Violence Services using a brand new text feature, live web chat or through a new mobile app