ABC Choose Kindness PSA Campaign

October is Bullying Prevention Month and we are launching our 6th annual Choose Kindness campaign on Monday, October 1st. Disney|ABC Television is partnering with GLSEN, GLAAD, PACER and No Bully along with ESPN, to raise awareness around National Bullying Prevention Month. Disney|ABC Choose Kindness campaign will encourage kids, families and communities around the country to help put an end to bullying by choosing kindness.

We have a new network PSA with ABC talent below.

This campaign flight dates are October 1st – October 31st but the PSA content can air until September 30, 2019.

STARS ACROSS DISNEY|ABC TELEVISION ENCOURAGE AUDIENCES TO
#CHOOSEKINDNESS IN MULTI-PLATFORM CAMPAIGN FOR OCTOBER'S NATIONAL BULLYING PREVENTION MONTH

Ryan Seacrest and Carrie Underwood Among Key Spokespeople for Public Service Campaign with Custom Video Spots

Throughout October, stars across Disney|ABC Television are rallying behind National Bullying Prevention Month and encouraging viewers to #ChooseKindness through personal testimonials and videos that reinforce the importance of being kind. Along with nonprofit partners GLSEN, GLAAD, PACER, ESPN's "Shred Hate" campaign, No Bully, and Common Sense Media, the multi-platform and cross-network initiative, now in its sixth year, focuses on inspiring kids, families and change-makers around the country to put an end to bullying in their communities and online.

All month long, ABC, Freeform and Disney Channel will roll out a series of customized public service announcements (PSAs) with fan favorite stars that call on audiences to end negativity, celebrate their differences, support love and, ultimately, choose kindness. Serving as the primary ambassadors for the campaign are award-winning radio and television personality Ryan Seacrest and seven-time GRAMMY® Award winner, multi-platinum selling, global superstar Carrie Underwood. (All PSAs available at: <https://www.disneyabcpress.com/disneyabctv/bullying-prevention-month>; ABC PSA: <https://youtu.be/EuZoCngWAQ>)

Since first stepping onto the iconic "American Idol" stage, Seacrest has become a fixture in pop culture and media, recently returning as host of the beloved music competition series on ABC, while also co-hosting and executive producing Disney|ABC's top-rated, nationally syndicated "Live with Kelly and Ryan," and ABC's annual live show, "Dick Clark's New Year's Rockin' Eve with Ryan Seacrest." On the radio, Seacrest hosts "On Air with Ryan Seacrest," his market-topping, No. 1 nationally syndicated, Los Angeles morning drive-time show for iHeartMedia's 102.7 KIIS-FM, as well as a nationally syndicated Top 40 radio show.

Underwood lends her new single "Love Wins," off of her latest album "Cry Pretty," as an anthem of solidarity throughout Disney|ABC's month-long campaign. "Cry Pretty," which Underwood co-produced, debuted at No. 1 on the Billboard 200 and Top Country Album Charts, and is her first album released on Capitol Records Nashville. "Love Wins" was written by Underwood, David Garcia and Brett James. A custom PSA, produced by Radio Disney and featuring Underwood, will debut on Disney Channel and across Radio Disney's social media and YouTube beginning Oct. 2. Underwood recently received the Hero Award at the 2018 Radio Disney Music Awards recognizing her humanitarian efforts and support of a myriad of charities.

"The Choose Kindness campaign is incredibly important to our identity as Disney|ABC Television, with storytelling across our series and networks that celebrate inclusion, respect and love," said David Ambroz, executive director, Corporate Citizenship & Internal Communications. "We're thrilled that for the sixth year, our talent has stepped up to deliver heartfelt and honest messages that encourage our viewers to accept the challenge of choosing kindness, and that our ongoing partnerships with these nonprofit changemakers continue to make a difference in our communities."

"We are extremely proud to once again partner with Disney|ABC Television on this year's #ChooseKindness campaign for National Bullying Prevention Month," said Eliza Byard, GLSEN executive director. "Their invaluable dedication to this cause within its programming, through its talent and more continues to be an inspiring example for young viewers everywhere. As a national education organization working to create safe and inclusive K-12 schools for LGBTQ youth, GLSEN has seen firsthand what happens when students stand up against bullying – as happened just last week in thousands of schools nationwide during GLSEN's Ally Week. When young people are encouraged to choose kindness, respect and taught how to be allies for one another, school becomes a safer and more welcoming environment in which all students can fully reach their academic potential."

In addition to the PSAs, several stars offered honest testimonials of their personal experiences with bullying. From being called names to being teased about their weight to being judged by the color of their skin, these heartfelt videos offer audiences a glimpse into an epidemic that their favorite stars are not immune to, as well as uplifting messages on how to take a stand for those being bullied around them.

Among the stars featured in the videos and photos throughout the month are Kelly Ripa ("Live With Kelly and Ryan"); Taran Killam ("Single Parents"); Leighton Meester ("Single Parents"); James Roday ("A Million Little Things"); Ron Livingston ("A Million Little Things"); Randall Park ("Fresh Off The Boat"); Nathan Fillion ("The Rookie"); Raven-Symoné ("Raven's Home"); Issac Ryan Brown ("Raven's Home," "Kim Possible"); Sasha Pieterse ("Pretty Little Liars: The Perfectionists"); Janel Parrish ("Pretty Little Liars: The Perfectionists") and many more.

In partnership with GLAAD and PACER, Disney|ABC will also celebrate two key dates in October that call on audiences to show their support and stand against bullying. On Thursday, Oct. 18, GLAAD encourages supporters to wear purple for "Spirit Day" to stand against bullying and demonstrate support for lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and queer (LGBTQ) youth. On Wednesday, Oct. 24, viewers are encouraged to celebrate PACER's Unity Day. Wear and share orange to show unity against bullying and band together to celebrate for kindness, acceptance and inclusion.

Additional campaigns being celebrated throughout the month of October include GLSEN's "Ally Week" and ESPN's "Shred Hate," a bullying prevention program from ESPN, MLB and X Games which seeks to eliminate bullying by encouraging kids to choose kindness. As part of "Shred Hate," No Bully, a nonprofit organization that ignites student compassion to eradicate bullying and cyberbullying, is partnering with local school districts and training them how to implement the award-winning No Bully System. To date, more than 25,791 students have been impacted by the program in schools across the country and an additional 60,000 students will be reached in the 2018-2019 school year.

Share Your Ears

To celebrate 90 years of Mickey Mouse, and in conjunction with the Disney Team of Heroes commitment to provide comfort and inspiration to families of children facing serious illness, Disney and Make-A-Wish® are inviting fans to #ShareYourEars. This innovative, multi-faceted cause marketing campaign will let fans unlock donations from Disney to Make-A-Wish® through several key consumer activations.

In conjunction with Mickey's 90th, #ShareYourEars is a Disney enterprise-wide campaign with two promotional phases. Please note, phase 2 is a surprise and won't be announced until November 18th. Also, Disney fans can add #ShareYourEars Facebook profile frames to celebrate Mickey's 90th.

PHASE 1

From November 4 to November 17, 2018, simply take a photo showing off your "Mickey Mouse ears" — or any creative "ears" — and upload it to Facebook, Instagram or Twitter. For every public post with hashtag #ShareYourEars, Disney will donate US $5 to Make-A-Wish®, up to US $2 million to grant even more wishes. This is all part of the Disney Team of Heroes commitment to deliver comfort and inspiration to families around the world. For more information, go to ShareYourEars.org.

PHASE 2

From November 18 to November 27, 2018, simply take a photo showing off your "Mickey Mouse ears" — or any creative "ears" — and upload it to Facebook, Instagram or Twitter. For every public post with #ShareYourEars, Disney will donate US $5 to Make-A-Wish®, up to US $1 million to grant even more wishes. This is all part of the Disney Team of Heroes commitment to deliver comfort and inspiration to families around the world. For more information, go to ShareYourEars.org.

Since 1980, Disney and Make-A-Wish® have granted life-changing wishes for more than 130,000 children with critical illnesses around the world. This extraordinary relationship has impacted the lives of millions of people worldwide, from wish children and their families to medical professionals, Disney VoluntEARS, and donors who help make wishes come true.

#SHAREYOUR EARS: HOW IT WORKS

In conjunction with Mickey's 90th, #ShareYourEars is a Disney enterprise-wide campaign with two promotional phases. Please note, phase 2 is a surprise and won't be announced until November 18th. Also, Disney fans can add #ShareYourEars Facebook profile frames to celebrate Mickey's 90th.

On November 4, 2018, the Share Your Ears campaign will kick off during a two-hour special, Mickey's 90th Spectacular, on ABC TV commemorating Mickey's 90th. A dedicated segment will outline the special role that wish granting plays at Disney, where more than 10,000 wishes come true every year. After sharing a heartwarming video of a child whose wish was to meet Mickey Mouse in person, Robin Roberts will invite Disney viewers to join Disney in helping make wishes come true by participating in Share Your Ears.

CALL TO ACTION:

Join Disney in celebrating 90 years of Mickey Mouse by Sharing Your Ears, and you'll help make life-changing wishes come true for children with critical illnesses.

Cold Case

For over 25 years authorities searched for the man who brutally murdered 25-year-old Pennsylvania teacher Christy Mirack. But this summer there was a major break in the case when world-renowned DNA detective CeCe Moore used DNA found at the crime scene, a genealogical website and her own expertise with family trees to identify potential suspect, Raymond Rowe, in just a few days from her living room. ABC News correspondent Ryan Smith reports

Murder In The Mansion

Just yesterday Daron Wint was found guilty of murder, burglary, kidnapping, arson, theft and extortion in connection with the brutal murders of husband and wife Savvas and Amy Savopoulos, their 10-year-old son, Philip, and housekeeper Verálicia Figuero, who were killed inside the Savopoulos' Washington D.C. mansion before it was set on fire. "20/20" has been following the case since 2015 and features the latest on the trial and evidence in the case with reporting by ABC News correspondent Ryan Smith. The hour includes an interview with Nelitza Gutierrez, another housekeeper for the Savopoulos family. Wint will be sentenced in February 2019.

Brave New Face

After Cameron "Cam" Underwood tried to commit suicide at age 24 by shooting himself in the face, his life was saved by doctors but he was left disfigured, missing teeth, a chin, cheekbones and a facial structure. Last December, Cam underwent a life-changing face transplant surgery that took over 25 hours to perform. More than two years after that tragic day, "20/20" co-anchor Amy Robach sits down with Cam as he shares his new face with the world during his first television interview, and opens up about his surgery and new lease on life. The hour also features Cam's emotional first meeting with Sally Fisher, the mother of his face donor, Will Fisher.

Family Secrets

"20/20" reports on Kim Pack's five-year-long fight for justice after her mother, New Jersey radio host April Kauffman, was allegedly murdered by a hit man hired by her husband, Dr. James "Jim" Kauffman. Jim was charged with the murder of April and with allegedly running an illegal drug distribution ring with members of the Pagans Motorcycle Club. Jim's charges came after prosecutor Damon Tyner, appointed to his position in 2017, dug into the cold case of April's murder. "20/20" ABC News correspondent Deborah Roberts reports.

'Til Death Do Us Part

"20/20" reports on the controversial 2012 murder of Jaime Melgar who was stabbed inside his bedroom during what initially appeared to be a home invasion. His wife, Sandra, claims she blacked out during the incident and did not see or hear her husband being brutally attacked. But just last year, Sandra was convicted of killing Jaime, shocking her and her family. ABC News senior national correspondent Matt Gutman.

The Devil in Disguise

Christopher Watts was sentenced to life in prison without parole for murdering his pregnant wife, Shanann, and young daughters Bella and Celeste in Colorado. "20/20" Co-anchor Amy Robach sits down for the first interview with Shanann's parents, Frank and Sandra Rzucek, who open up about their daughter, granddaughters and their grief. The pair also discusses their relationship with Chris and the shocking crime that devastated their family.

Friday, December 14, 2018

A Plot to Kill

Gypsy Rose Blanchard, whose mother claimed she was terminally ill and wheelchair bound since childhood, made national headlines when she not only pleaded guilty to second-degree murder in the stabbing of her caregiver mother, Claudine "Dee Dee" Blanchard, but also proved that she could walk and did not suffer from the variety of medical illnesses that her mother had claimed. The hour features an interview with Gypsy from prison as she opens up to "20/20" co-anchor Amy Robach.

Explosive Tom Fallis Murder Trial

"20/20" reports on Tom Fallis' explosive murder trial in Colorado, in which he was accused and acquitted of murdering his wife, Ashley Fallis, after her 2012 death was originally ruled a suicide. Ashley's mother, Jenna Fox, doggedly got a local news reporter to investigate the death, which eventually led to a new investigation and indictment. ABC News Correspondent Ryan Smith's report. Killing on the Cape

Fifteen years after the murder of Christa Worthington, Christopher McCowen – who was convicted for her murder— speaks to "20/20" from jail in his first broadcast interview while he is fighting for freedom, claiming he is innocent. After a three-year investigation, police arrested McCowen, the local trash collector. He was eventually sentenced to life in prison without parole, but his trial raised questions about the evidence, investigative methods and whether racial prejudice played a role. (OAD: 10/25/17)
