Rob Hipp Named “Voice of the Bison” for NDSU Football, Men’s Basketball

Former Sam Houston Bearkats’ Voice to Handle Play-by-Play, Coaches’ Shows

FARGO, N.D. (Aug. 5, 2022) – The North Dakota State University athletic department, its multimedia rightsholder LEARFIELD, and Radio FM Media have announced Rob Hipp as “Voice of the Bison” starting this season. Hipp also will serve as sports director for KQWB-AM BISON 1660.

He officially joins the Bison family on August 15 and will handle play-by-play duties for football and men’s basketball. Hipp also will host the one-hour coaches’ shows for radio and television during football and men’s and women’s basketball seasons.

Hipp will relocate to Fargo from Texas, where he was the radio play-by-play voice for Sam Houston Bearkats’ football, basketball and baseball programs. He also was sports director for KSAM-KHVL radio, where he produced daily sports segments, podcasts and hosted talk shows.

“The Voice of the Bison position goes well beyond calling football and basketball games. It is about conveying the NDSU Athletics story to our passionate fanbase across the nation,” said Director of Athletics Matt Larsen. “In addition to his strong play by play call, Rob Hipp’s ability to connect with the community and fanbase truly separated him from other talented candidates. We are excited to have him join the Bison Family.”

Fans can hear Hipp’s debut behind the mic on Saturday, Sept. 3, when Bison football opens the season at home against Drake at 2:30 p.m.

“We are thrilled to have Rob join the team at Radio FM Media as the new voice of the Bison, Director of Operations for Bison 1660-92.7 and Sports Director for our group,” said Nancy Odney, COO. “Rob is a very talented play-by-play announcer and a top sports radio host. His creative energy, new content and passion for sports and broadcasting is going to be an exciting addition to the team.”

“It’s an incredible opportunity and blessing to be here. The word that comes to mind with everything associated with NDSU is excellence,” said Hipp. “Matt Larsen, Coach Entz, Coach Richman, the support staff and everyone with Bison Sports Properties led by Josh Hartman made this a transparent and smooth process. I also want to thank Tom Boman with LEARFIELD as well as Nancy Odney and the great people at Radio FM Media. My family and I are proud to be in Fargo! I am looking forward to plugging in to the community, getting to know Bison Nation and helping to carry on the legacy of Bison Pride! Horns Up!”

North Dakota State University is a student-focused, land-grant, research university located in Fargo, N.D., with an enrollment of approximately 13,000 students. NDSU is a member of The Summit League and Missouri Valley Football Conference with an affiliate membership in the Big 12 Conference for wrestling. NDSU has a storied history of athletic success including 29 team national championships since 1965 in football, women's basketball, wrestling, softball, men's cross country and women's indoor track and field. Since completing a reclassification to NCAA Division I in the fall of 2008, the Bison have won nine football national championships, earned five NCAA men's basketball tournament berths, made 10 softball regionals and one super regional, three NCAA women's volleyball postseason appearances, two NCAA baseball regionals, as well as NCAA regionals in women's soccer, and men's and women's golf while producing several All-Americans in track and field, cross country and wrestling.

Radio FM Media is a multimedia broadcasting company. We have nine dynamic radio stations with the top on air announcers and influencers in the market. Our stations have HD technology that is exclusive to the market providing unmatched audio quality across our streams, smart speaker skills, mobile apps and multiple FM signals. We sponsor nine signature events and have a high quality digital platform with Digital FM Media. Radio FM Media, Inc. is locally owned by Jim Ingstad.

LEARFIELD is the exclusive athletics multimedia rights holder NDSU. Its locally based team, Bison Sports Properties, works alongside the athletics administration in daily oversight of the comprehensive rights agreement and management of the corporate partner platform.
